

COMPANY RULES

As amended 20th March 2024

1. The name of the Society is "The Channel Islands Occupation Society (Jersey)"
2. The aim of the Society is to fund the Channel Islands Occupation Society (Jersey) Limited (the "Company") to enable the Company to perform the following objects (the "Objects"):
  - a) study and investigate of the German Occupation of the Channel Islands and publish documents relating thereto; and
  - b) further interest in the Occupation Period by recording, safeguarding and preserving relics of that period.

To further these Objects the Company shall contract with various owners to manage and, with the help of Society members, refurbish selected German fortifications, furnish them with displays of suitable artefacts, both genuine and reproduction, and where possible open them to the public.

With the exception of the holding of meetings of its members, the sole activity of the Society shall be to collect subscription monies from its members and to transfer these to the Company.

In exchange for funding the Company, the Company has agreed to organise the annual general meeting of the Society (the "A.G.M.") and all other meetings of the members and Association Committee (as defined below). Any costs relating thereto will be borne by the Company.

All activities previously undertaken by the Society in furtherance of the Objects will be undertaken by the Company. In exchange for funding the Company, the Company has agreed that the members shall be entitled to participate in such activities in furtherance of the Objects as shall be permitted by the Company from time to time.
3.
  - a) The amount of the annual subscription shall be determined at the A.G.M.
  - b) A member's subscription shall be valid from the month of their joining the society, for 12 months. A renewal subscription shall be due on the first day of the month immediately following. If any members renewal subscription remains unpaid the Membership Secretary shall warn the member once. If the subscription remains unpaid following this warning, the member's membership shall cease.
  - c) A joint husband/wife/partner subscription shall apply which is to be equal to 75% of two full subscriptions. Joint subscribers shall be entitled to receive only one copy of any publication issued by the Company in every year.
  - d) A junior subscription, equal to 75% of one full subscription, shall apply to those who are below the age of 16 at the time of the A.G.M.
  - e) A family subscription shall apply covering one or two parents as provided by rule 3(c), plus an unlimited number of children under the age of 16 at the time of the A.G.M. whose subscription shall

Private and Confidential

be equal to 40% of one full entitled to receive only one copy of every year.

subscription. Family subscribers shall be any publication issued by the Company in

4. Candidates wishing to join the society shall submit to the Treasurer or Secretary a completed application form. Names of prospective new members shall be circulated to existing members in the first available newsletter. If any new member is thought to be unsuitable and a statement to that effect is received by the Secretary signed and supported by no less than 5 members then that new membership will be considered by the committee whose decision will be final. Committee members shall not propose or second incumbent Committee members.

5. The ruling body ("the Society Committee") shall consist of:
  - a) A President: who shall act as Chairman.
  - b) Two Vice-Presidents; one to be designated 'Business Manager' and the other to be designated 'Fortifications Coordinator.'
  - c) A Treasurer; also acting as membership secretary.
  - d) A Company Secretary; who shall be responsible for legal company matters including calling meetings, maintaining insurances and keeping minutes.
  - e) An Archivist;
  - f) An Education Officer
  - g) A Heritage Officer
  - h) And as many general committee members, as may from time to time be thought necessary, with or without special portfolio.

In the event of a vacancy in any of the above positions, for any reason, the committee shall have the right to fill that vacancy by appointing a member to fill that role. The appointee shall exercise the office in the same way as if they had been elected by a general meeting. Any such appointment shall be announced at the next general meeting.

It is anticipated that at least three members of the Society Committee will become guarantee members directors of the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company. Those Committee Members must obtain Jersey Financial Services Commission approval for their nomination to the Company Board, and must not have any "Reportable Matters" as defined by the Charities (Jersey) Law 2014.

The duties of the Society Committee shall be limited to those activities contemplated in these Rules. It is anticipated that the aforementioned titles given to the members of the Society Committee shall be reflected in their appointment as directors of the Company and that their functions as directors of the Company will reflect the aforementioned titles.

5. Members meetings and Society Committee meetings shall be held when convened by the Secretary.

6. The fullest co-operation shall be extended to the equivalent Society in Guernsey.
7. The Society (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Company) is non-political and non-partisan.
The Society (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Company) is not a World War II re-enactment organisation.
8. Any member wishing to resign must notify the Secretary in writing.
9. The expulsion of a member can only be effected at a meeting of the members where the majority of those members present shall vote in favour of such expulsion.
10. Only those members present at a meeting of the members can vote in an election of officials.
11. The AGM shall be held in March of each year. Changes to these Rules, nominations of officials, and any other motion to be included in any agenda shall be received in writing by the Secretary, properly proposed and seconded, by no later than the last day of February preceding the AGM.
12. Decisions taken at any meeting of the members shall be by majority vote of those members present at the meeting.
13. Visitors are welcome to attend meetings, but no visitor may attend more than two meetings in any one year (a year to count as running from one A.G.M. to the next), and a fee of £5 shall be paid for each meeting attended whether it be held outdoors or indoors.
14. Individual members shall not use the Society's name for conducting research or for obtaining archival material. Any such activities are to be conducted by the Company and members will require the authority of the Company for any activities carried out in the name of or on behalf of the Company.
15. While participating in Company activities no member or guest, (other than serving members of H.M. forces or the armed forces of other nations and re-enactors who have been specifically invited to do so by the committee,) shall wear military uniforms or equipment, carry weapons (real or otherwise), or display political insignia.
16. In the event of the Society being wound up, all items on loan shall be returned to their owners (unless such owners direct otherwise) and all remaining artefacts and remaining assets shall be passed to the Company.
17. All communications by the Society to members shall use email by default. Members may opt-in to postal communications by contacting the Secretary. The Secretary shall from time to time give publicity to the members of those undertake in furtherance of the way of a notice signed by the Society.

Private and Confidential

activities which the Company proposed to Objects. Publicity of such activities shall be by Secretary and sent to each member of the 18. All communications by the Society to members shall be sent to a member's last given address and shall be deemed to have been served in all instances within seven (7) days of posting. Each and every member shall provide the Secretary with their preferred email and postal address details.

Approved at the extraordinary general meeting held on 24th March 1992, and amended and updated at the annual general meetings held 1994, 2000, 2002, 2006, 2010, 2018, 2019, 2023 and 2024.